CRL.M.A. 11219/2022

Exemption allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

Application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.A. 11218/2022

The applicant's sentence was suspended on 19.01.2022 but she was not able to avail the benefit of the same for want of 2 sureties. Hence, on 08.03.2022, this Court modified the condition, wherein personal bond and surety was reduced to Rs. 15,000/- and the surety was permitted to be somebody other than a family member. However, the applicant has not been able to comply with the said condition as well.

The counsel for the applicant has taken me through the memo of parties, wherein the residential address of the applicant is shown as Guddi

KI Makan, Nasbandi Colony, Bengali Masjid, Loni, Dist. Ghaziabad, U.P.

He submits that in this case, the condition of 08.03.2022 requires further modification. In the present case, the applicant has a permanent place of residence which is the above address. Hence, he requests that the applicant must be released on personal bond only, without any surety.

I am of the view that once an order of suspension has been passed, the applicant must be entitled to its benefit in its true letter, spirit and intent. Every day of freedom matters and the applicant cannot be made to stay in jail for the reason that she could not furnish surety.

In this view of the matter, I further modify the condition imposed vide order dated 08.03.2022 and direct the applicant to be released on a personal bond of Rs. 10,000/-. The applicant, however, shall report to the nearest local police station at Ghaziabad twice a week, i.e. on Monday and Thursday.

It is further directed that the applicant shall share her mobile no. with the Investigating Officer and mobile no. shall be operational at all times. The live pin of the location of applicant shall also be on all the time.

The name of the Investigating Officer is Insp. Ms. Seema Singh and her mobile no. is 8750870066.

With the above direction, the application is disposed of.
