Mr. Ankit Tiwari, Adv.UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Having heard learned counsel for the parties for some time, it appears prima facie that the petitioner as well as respondent No.1 both are abusing the process of law by initiating multiple cases against each other at the cost of funds of the employees union of the Insurance Company. It further appears that the entire cost of litigation is also being siphoned from the funds of the Union. This kind of luxury litigation, which is at the cost of genuine and bona fide litigants, who are in queue before the Courts, must be dealt with iron hands. However, before we issue appropriate directions, learned counsel for the parties seek some time to take instructions for withdrawal of respective cases by their clients.

2. List the matter after four weeks.
3. Needful be done, meanwhile.
