Subject: Regarding use of minors for raising funds

National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) is a statutory body constituted under Section 3 of the Commission for Protection of Child Rights (CPCR) Act, 2005 to protect the child rights and other related matters in the Country. The Commission is further mandated to monitor the proper and effective implementation of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012; Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 and Right to Free and Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009. In one of the functions laid down under Section 13 of the CPCR Act, 2005, the Commission has been assigned with the function to examine and review the safeguards provided by or under any law for the time being in force for the protection of child rights and recommend measures for their effective implementation. The Commission also has the powers of Civil Court trying a suit under Section 14 of CPCR Act, 2005 and Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

2. The Commission has been in receipt of a complaint wherein Hon'ble Member of Parliament has raised concern to the Commission that various Non Governmental Organization (NGO's) are seen raising funding, domestic as well as international for their NGO's through advertisement on print media, news channels, websites, social media and radio while showing vulnerable minor children in deplorable condition. The Commission in the said matter has also come across various such advertisements and fund raising activities by prominent NGO's and organizations.

3. The Commission in the said regard observes that such activities is a violation of child rights, which is in contravention of provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, therefore the Commission recommends your good
