ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The State of Maharashtra realizing the importance of quality legal education and the need for well-trained law graduates to the Bar, Bench, and profession took a very bold decision by creating three National Law Universities in the State of Maharashtra at Mumbai, Nagpur, and Aurangabad. Further, all three are independent and autonomous institutions created under the Maharashtra National Law University Act, of 2014. The latest one added to the list of National Law Universities in India is the Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad, which commenced on March 16, 2017.

ABOUT THE CENTRE

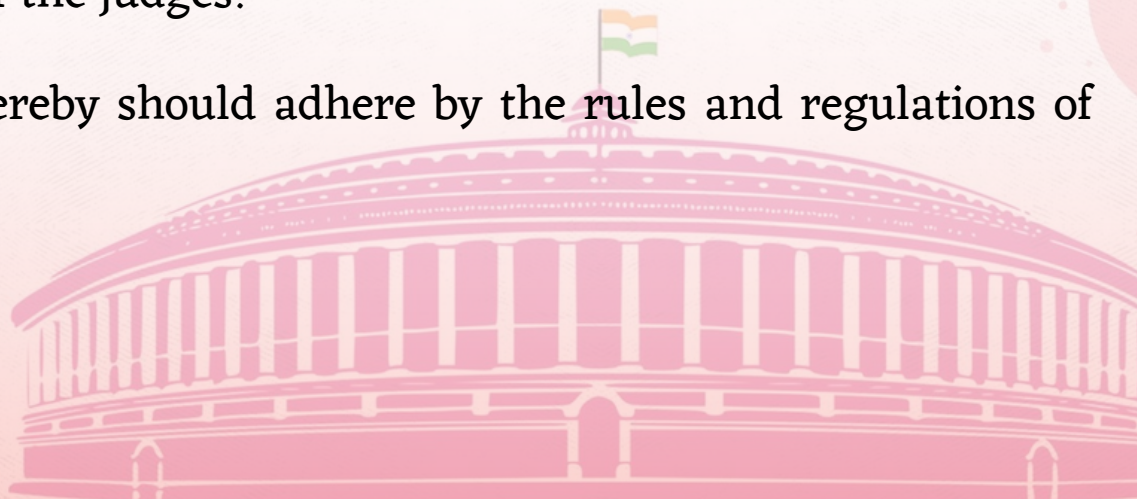

The Centre for Public Law, MNLUA was established in 2022 with the aim of disseminating thorough knowledge and developing critical thinking of Public Law among students. Its aim is to provide the students with the current trends and ongoing developments in the field of Public Law. This includes talks on policies and schemes of the executive, Bills passed by the Legislature, and the Judgements delivered by the Judiciary.

ABOUT NATIONAL YOUTH PARLIAMENT

A Youth Parliament in essence is a stimulation of a Parliamentary session wherein the participants understand the parliamentary procedure and develop an insight into the working of the Parliament. It is a platform to discuss the national issue on a large scale in a proper forum and in front of experienced moderators. It brings the like-minded youngsters on the same platform and offers opportunity to stimulate discussion and come up with possible solutions. MNLUA is organizing "The 1st National Youth Parliament, 2023," comprising of three major committees that are NITI Aayog, Lok Sabha and National Security Council.
