The entire process for e-notarization has been elaborated in paragraph No. 2(a) to (h) of the application. The screenshots of the video call, completion certificate issued by eMudhra, and document log details, explaining the procedure adopted have been reproduced in the applications.

15. Considering the afore-noted, the Court is satisfied that Plaintiffs’ constituted attorney has electronically signed the notarised affidavits filed along with the petition and accompanying applications as well as the vakalatnama. Accordingly, the applications are allowed and the electronically signed and notarised affidavits are taken on record.

CS(COMM) 466/2024

20. List before the Joint Registrar for marking of exhibits on 27th August, 2024. It is made clear that any party unjustifiably denying documents would be liable to be burdened with costs.

21. List before Court for framing of issues thereafter.

I.A. 30772/2024(w/O XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of CPC)

22. The Plaintiffs have filed the instant application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,<sup>2</sup> seeking protection of their mark/ name “Singh & Singh” used in relation to the legal services provided by them. They are aggrieved by the use of identical marks – “Singh and Singh” and “Singh and Singh Lawyers LLP” and their derivatives by Defendants No. 1 and 2, for the same services.

23. The case of Plaintiffs, as set out in the plaint, is as follows:

23.1. Plaintiff No. 1, Singh & Singh Law Firm LLP, was founded in 1997 for providing legal services under the trademark “Singh & Singh”. Later, in 2005, the firm adopted another trademark “Singh & Singh Advocates.” The details of registrations of the above trademarks are as follows:

S.No.	Mark	Date of Application	Regd. No.	Class	Services
1.		22.12.2005	1408313	42	all kinds of legal services
2.		09.09.2009	1860364	42	all kinds of legal services included in class 42

23.2. Plaintiff No. 1 assigned the afore-mentioned trademarks to Plaintiff No. 2, MKS IP Assets Pvt. Ltd., w.e.f. April 2014. This change has been reflected in the records of the Trademarks Registry.

23.3. Plaintiff No. 1-firm has, over the years, expanded into several branches of law, including constitutional, commercial, arbitration, and intellectual property laws. The firm has acquired enormous acclaim in India as well as in several foreign countries. Their clientele hails from different parts of the world, such as the USA, Canada, Japan, South Africa, Australia. Over the years, Plaintiff No. 1 has become one of India's leading law firms in the fields of intellectual property litigation, information technology, and technology, media and telecommunication. The plaint also sets out the details of various accolades and awards received by Plaintiff No. 1. In addition, the lawyers engaged with Plaintiff No. 1 are members of international organizations like INTA, APAA, AIPPI, FICPI etc., and are active participants of annual conferences and other events organized by these institutions. These conferences are conducted at a global level in various parts of the world, including the USA, Canada, Germany, and Australia.

23.4. The business presence of Plaintiff No. 1 spans across the world, including South Africa, where they cater to major multi-national corporations, such as Cipla, Bharti, Gilead, PepsiCo, GlenMark, ZEE, FritoLay, GoodEarth, ICICI Bank and Radio Mirchi. Members of Plaintiff No. 1 also regularly collaborate with law firms and lawyers based in South Africa for providing services to their clients located in the said country. Many of Plaintiff No. 1's partners and lawyers are members of organizations that facilitate interactions and collaboration between the legal industries of different nations. Several of these organizations have committees, where advocates from both Plaintiff No. 1-firm and South Africa, are members. Thus, the firm has a strong cross-border reputation, which extends to South Africa.

23.5. Defendant No. 1, a law firm located in South Africa, offers their services under the trademark/ name “Singh and Singh Attorneys.” They also have an active website “<https://singhlaw.co.za/>,” which is accessible in India. This domain name/ website was registered in Defendant No. 1’s name on 15th October, 2021. Defendant No. 2 is the owner/ founder of Defendant No. 1.

23.6. Through various online modes, the Defendants are promoting their trademark “Singh and Singh Attorneys” in India and soliciting clients for their business. The clients, who are of Indian origin, are likely to be misled into assuming a relationship between Plaintiff No. 1 and Defendant No. 1. Further, given Plaintiff No. 1’s strong cross-border presence and reputation, the viewers of such promotional posts/ material would potentially be misled about their origin. The marks being identical and used for the same purpose, the Defendants’ use of the impugned mark amounts to infringement and passing off of Plaintiff’s trademarks.

24. The Court has considered the submissions advanced by Mr. Mehta, and reviewed the record. A comparison of the Plaintiffs’ and Defendants’ marks /names is set out in the following table, reproduced from the plaint:

Comparison table- names, domains, social media accounts and primary logos
S.No.	Description	Plaintiffs	Defendants
1	Mark/name	Singh & Singh	Singh and Singh
2	Full name	Singh & Singh Law Firm LLP	Singh and Singh Attorneys
3	Abbreviated name	Singh & Singh Law Firm	Singh and Singh
4	Domain name/ website	http://www.singhandsingh.com/	https://singhlaw.co.za/
5	Facebook	@SinghLawFirmLLP	@Singh & Singh Attorneys and Conveyances

6	LOGO (trade name)	SINGH & SINGH'
7	LOGO

25. In the prima facie view of the Court, the above table conspicuously demonstrates that the parties' marks are identical and are being used for identical services, targeting the same segment of consumers. The profile of Plaintiff No. 1, as noted above, and as delineated in the plaint, clearly indicates that Plaintiff No. 1's law practice is not confined to India, and extends to South Africa. On a preliminary assessment, it appears that Plaintiff No. 1 has a significant digital presence and global reputation and goodwill and is servicing clients across the globe. The Court also finds prima facie merit in the contention of the Plaintiffs that nowadays legal services are rendered across the globe through internet and electronic means. In this internet-driven world, law firms such as the Plaintiff No. 1, would have a reputation which is not limited by geographical boundaries. Therefore, there is a strong possibility of confusion amongst the foreign clients/law firms relating to the two marks, which are predominantly identical. There is a strong likelihood that they would be led to believe that Defendants' "Singh and Singh" is another branch or an associate office of Plaintiff's "Singh & Singh." Thus, the use of impugned marks, that are identical or deceptively similar to the trademarks of the Plaintiffs, and their domain name "singhlaw.co.za" is likely to cause confusion to the clients located in India as well as South Africa, where Plaintiff No. 1 has a formidable presence.

26. In view of the above, the Court finds that the Plaintiffs have made out a prima facie case in their favour and in case an ex-parte ad-interim injunction is not granted, the Plaintiffs will suffer an irreparable loss; balance of convenience also lies in favour of the Plaintiffs and against the Defendants No. 1 and 2.

27. Till the next date of hearing, Defendants No. 1 and 2 or anybody acting on their behalf are restrained from using in India the impugned marks “Singh and Singh,” “Singh & Singh,” “singhlaw,” “singhandsingh,”

“,” and “” or any other trademark/ trade name/ service name/ trading style, which is either identical to, or deceptively similar to Plaintiffs’ marks/ names/ logos “Singh & Singh,” “Singh & Singh Law Firm LLP”, “Singh and Singh,” “<http://www.singhandsingh.com/>,” “singhlaw,” “singhandsingh.com,” “Singh & Singh Advocates,” “Singh & Singh Attorneys” or any other derivatives thereof so as to result in infringement and passing off of Plaintiffs’ trademarks.

28. Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India and Department of Telecommunications, Ministry of Communications, Government of India is directed to issue necessary directions to the telecom service providers and internet service providers to block access within India to the website hosted on the impugned domain name “<https://singhlaw.co.za/>”.

29. Upon filing of process fee, issue notice to the Defendants, by all permissible modes, returnable on the next date of hearing. Reply, if any, be filed within four weeks from the date of service. Rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed within two weeks thereafter.

30. Compliance of Order XXXIX Rule 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 be done with ten days from today.

31. List on 23rd October, 2024.
