After the aforesaid dismissal of the case, the learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioner(s) submitted that there cannot be any discrimination in selection by not considering the people from backward classes. We make it clear that God did not create the classification on the basis of race, religion, language or caste, and the same are human constructs.

Therefore, in the event of any selection of non-hereditary trustee, the caste of a person can never be a bar, and the principle governing the field in this regard will have to be strictly adhered to.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
